Your Power to Shine in the Spotlight

Whether you're speaking on a big stage or in a small conference room, you need a powerful presence that connects with your audience. If you've ever envied those who seem to have it all—whose poise and radiant inner confidence is amplified by a well-polished personal style—join us to discover their secrets. You'll get the take-home tools you need to continually build, hold and convey your own self confidence as well as to polish your external image. As a result, you'll get noticed, stand out in a crowd, and easily connect with those you intend to reach and serve.

February 20, 2010 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Powerful Style for Your Shape & Proportion

Have you ever tried on a few expensive outfits and wondered why some styles look better on you than others? Most ready-to-wear styles are designed for a model's shape and proportion. In this class, you'll learn to recognize the styles that are designed for your shape and proportion, so you can zero in on your best options quickly, avoid purchasing "mistakes" and always look your very best!

February 27, 2010 9 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Accessories: The Power to Pull it All Together

You probably know a pre-schooler who changes clothes frequently to fit her mood and the occasion. You too may want to change your appearance for the events of the day, but few of us have the time to completely redress. Accessories can quickly shift your style throughout the day. When chosen to complement your shape, coloring and proportion, they enhance your beauty. Join us and discover how to select accessories that are perfect for you, so you can expand your wardrobe inexpensively, freshen your image, and bring your style alive as you move with ease from business to personal occasions, from dawn to dusk.
